

Coming Soon to Boston!

SPD Foundation 7th International Symposium
SENSORY PROCESSING DISORDER:
Advanced Research and Innovative Practice

November 7 & 8, 2008 – Symposium
November 6 – Pre-Conference Institute

Start planning now to attend the SPD Foundation's 7th International Symposium in Boston. The Symposium features two information-packed days of presentations about Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD) by top researchers and leading clinicians. A first-ever day-long Pre-Conference Institute showcasing new assessment tools precedes the Symposium. The Institute is designed for professionals. The Symposium is appropriate for parents and professionals who have beginning through advanced knowledge of SPD.

Program highlights:

- Four keynote presentations spotlighting the latest SPD research
- One keynote presentation on the status of the DSM-V initiative
- Separate break-out tracks for research and treatment
- A pre-conference day dedicated to new assessment tools
- Sensory Integration Global Network (SIGN) luncheon

Keynote and featured speakers:

Lucy Jane Miller, PhD, OTR: "Achieving Diagnostic Recognition of SPD"

Margaret L. Bauman, MD: "Neuranatomical Observations in the Brain: Clues to SPD"

Alice S. Carter, PhD: "SPD and Problem Behaviors: A Prospective Longitudinal Study"

John J. Foxe, PhD: "SPD and Multisensory Integration: Perspectives from Neuroscience"

Diana Henry, MS, OTR: "Mini Tools for Tots"

Carol Stock Kranowitz, MA: "Great Strategies for Young Children at School and Home"

David L. Pauls, PhD: "SPD: Considerations from Genetics"

AOTA Continuing Education Credit: .6 CEU awarded for Institute participation
1.25 CEU awarded for Symposium participation

Pre-Conference Institute: $199

Symposium: $350 Early Bird – before August 15 ($514 combined with Institute)

$395 Discounted – from August 15 – September 30 ($554 combined with Institute)

$425 Regular and walk-in (space permitting) from October 1 ($581 combined)

SPD Foundation Individual/Family Members receive a 10% discount on non-combined tuition

Location: Hyatt Regency Boston – One Avenue de Lafayette – Boston, Massachusetts

For information and registration, visit www.SPDFoundation.net/symposium2008 or call 303.794.1182.